

TRINITY COMPUTER SCIENCE REU

Academic Self-Efficacy

August 1, 2008

Purpose

The purpose of this form is to measure students' self-efficacy and career plans.

Instruction

Please write down a percentage number which best describes your response to each statement.

	Pre REU (%)	Post REU (%)
I am confident in my ability to discuss research.
I am confident in my ability to design a research study.
I find research to be challenging and exciting.
I am easily frustrated when doing research.
I am confident in my knowledge of research methods.
I am confident in my ability to present research findings.
I am confident in my independent research skill (as a contributing group member, if applied)
I thought learning to do research was enjoyable.
I would like to consider getting a graduate research degree.
I would like to consider doing research in an industrial setting.
Research is important for identifying problems and solutions of value to society.		